

Vizcaya was the home of James Deering. He spent winters at Vizcaya from 1916 through 1925. Below are ideas that we found in a letter Mr. Deering wrote on May 2, 1918.

What would you think of having a cage with a few canaries in the northwest part of the arcade, near the door. I mean just a sufficient number to make a cheerful and not a deafening sound.

When you visited Vizcaya, what sounds did you hear?
Where did you hear these sounds?

Record your memories below.
